Active Stocks Close at Higher Level Than Monday.

Improved Technical Position Shown in Last Half Hour-Market Stagnant in Middle of Day, Due to Extremely Oppressive Weather-Slow Buying Back of Stocks.

New York, June 22 .- Prices on the stock market to-day pursued the path Erie which nearly all persons of experience in Wall Street and close students of existing conditions expected that they would following yesterday's break. There was Kans in general throughout the day a slow buying back of stocks that had been sold buying back of stocks that had been sold speculatively for the fall accompanied by a certain amount of purchases by people who have for a long time been waiting for a fair reaction upon which to make for a fair reaction upon which to make accumulations; and the result of this was that although net changes in our parties. a higher level than they did yesterday and that the market as a whole evinced a harder undertone. Improved Position Seen.

The improved technical position of affairs was shown in the view of many Th observers in the effect of what seemed to be another raid upon prices made in the last hour of the stock exchange session. Hasty and "at the market" selling of stocks took place at this time in all the principal issues; but a stronger resistance was presented to this attack than principal issues; but a stronger resist-ance was presented to this attack than was exhibited at any time on Monday, and the market in the last fifteen minutes Amal. ## WILL ASSESS DAMAGES.

Appeal Jury Summoned for Property Near Union Station.

The United States marshal has sum moned an appeal jury to appraise and determine the damages that have been sustained by property owners as a result of the changes in the grades of certain streets in the neighborhood of the Union Station. The jury summoned consists of John

H. Nolan, William F. Goode, William T. Galliher, Charles Werner, Richard W. Henderson, Oscar J. Ricketts, and Frank C. Henry. The property to be first considered fronts on Massachusetts avenue northwest, between North Capitol and First streets, and the jury has arranged to inspect the same Monday morning, at 9:30 o'clock and to begin the hearing of evidence at the City Hall Tuesday, at 2 o'clock.

Attorneys Leon Tobriner, H. L. B. Atkinson, and Alexander Buetner will represent the property owners, and A. Leftwich Sinclair, special attorney for the District, will look after the interests of the government.

Five bids have been received by Col. Oates, commissioner, for marking graves of Confederate dead, for the erection of a monument in the Confederate section of the Finns Point Na-tional Cemetery, at Salem, N. J. There are nearly 2,500 Confederate soldiers buried there.
